

Chili Cook Off Rules

1. The $5 entry fee must be paid before chili contest or chili will not be entered into the contest for judging. All entry fees must be paid before the contest. No additional entries will be accepted after judging begins. No refunds will be given for entry fees.
2. Chili judging will begin at 11:45 a.m.
3. Contestant must name chili.
4. Contestant must display a card that contains the name of the chili, the chili burn rating, and the type of meat used in the chili.
5. All varieties of chili are acceptable. Very spicy chilies will not be eligible for entry into the judging competition.
6. Contestants are responsible for supplying all of their own cooking utensils, serving spoon etc. Contestants are also responsible for cleanup of their station after the competition.
7. Contestant should prepare approximately one gallon of chili.
8. Prize for contest winner will be the total of all entry fees collected. There will be no prize for second and third place.
9. A contestant may provide more than one type of chili but all rules and an additional $5 fee must be paid per entry.

If you have any question please contact
Contest Organizer / Anne 509-599-8869